Discover China!

Combine Homestay and Teaching in China with our Star Exchange Language Volunteer Program

We offer you the chance to experience one of the most fascinating countries of our time as a Language Volunteer. In China ancient Asian traditions meet modernity like nowhere else in the world.

You can choose whether you would like to be a part of a wealthy Chinese family or whether to share an apartment with fellow Language Volunteers.

You will teach English to small classes for 30 hours a week, having two days off per week.

Thanks to the free Mandarin lessons and being directly in China, you will learn Chinese quickly and be able to freely discover China's culture, people, cities and landscapes.

While being in China your program coordinator will take great care of you and help you to cope with everyday life's issues. You can reach your program coordinator or one of her/his colleagues 24/7. The best part: Thanks to the fact that the host institution and/or your host family will cover the costs, you do not have to pay any program fee!
